PREFACE.

Shortly before Dr. Sven Hedin departed for Central Asia on a new journey of investigation he was advised by some of his friends to publish a selected number of the many portrait drawings which his skilful pen had produced during his former travels. Dr. Hedin agreed to the proposition, but was unable to do anything more before his journey than to arrange the collection in order; he was unable to prepare any text to accompany the drawings. Since such a text may also for various reasons be considered unnecessary, the undersigned have decided that they ought to publish the collection in the condition in which Dr. Hedin left it in our hands. We will only add that the drawings were produced during his journeys in Caucasia, Persia, and Mesopotamia 1885—86; in Persia and the Trans-Caspian 1890—91; in Pamir, East Turkestan, Northern Thibet, Tsaidam and China 1893—97, and in East Turkestan and Thibet 1899—1902.
